

NSC 2023: Short Report

FVTRS (Functional Vocational Training and Research Society) successfully held its 15th National Skill Conference at Hotel Capitol in Bangalore on October 12-13. The event was inaugurated by Shri. Sharanprakash R Patil, the honourable Minister for Skill Development and Medical Education. The keynote address was delivered by Dr. Shalini Rajneesh IAS, Additional Chief Secretary & Development Commissioner, Government of Karnataka. The conference focused on the relevance, challenges, and opportunities in skilling marginalized youth in light of changing trends, ESG (Environmental, Social, and Governance): Relevance, necessity, and strategies for in skills promotion, and the scope for workplace skills. The panel discussions were led by 15 renowned speakers from their respective fields.

On this occasion a document of inspiring stories of 1408 women entrepreneurs and Research report of National level study on skilling and employment opportunity was released.

FVTRS has completed a 30-year journey in skilling and providing employment opportunities for marginalized youth. On this occasion, FVTRS awarded 8 selected organizations for their extraordinary work in social engineering. Awards were also presented to FVTRS staff in different categories for their outstanding performance. The awards were given away by Mr. Markus Pfefferer, CEO & Managing Partner of COMANO Advisory LLP.