Award for Outstanding Social Engagement - Eradicating Unemployment in the unorganized Sector

The Functional Vocational Training and Research Society (FVTRS), a non-profit organization based in Bangalore, aims to enhance the employability of underprivileged youth, especially early school leavers, through vocational training. Our operations span across 13 states, with nearly 200 training centers. We emphasize sustainable development, social inclusion, and the empowerment of women and disadvantaged groups.

Since 1993, FVTRS has trained more than 1,75,000 youth, with a remarkable 83% Percentage of securing employment.

FVTRS is organizing its 16th National Skill Conference (NSC) on 29th November, 2024 in Bangalore. The NSC is a significant event that brings together professionals, experts, educators, policymakers, and other stakeholders from across the country to reflect on key areas of skill development and employment.

The event aims to foster collaboration among various entities involved in the skill ecosystem by facilitating networking opportunities, encouraging partnerships between industry and academia, and promoting dialogue between government bodies and other organizations in the skill ecosystem.

Building on the success of previous years, we have once again instituted National Awards in five categories to recognize the commendable work of NGOs, philanthropic units, CSR initiatives, and foundations. These awards aim to appreciate their outstanding contributions to social development and nation-building.

1. The selected awardees will be invited to attend the NSC on 29th November, 2024 where the awards will be presented by dignitaries during the conference.

2. The award will focus only on life changing intervention made for the employment creation for the people from unorganized sector.

The categories are

1. Empowerment Excellence Award for Disadvantaged Youth:

Recognizing outstanding efforts in skilling and employment for underprivileged (Dalit, Tribal, third gender and other backward communities) youth.

2. Women's Upliftment Award for Skilling and Employment:

Recognizing the initiatives that empower women in distress, backward castes, and tribal communities through skill development and employment.

3. Eco friendly skill development Award for Sustainable livelihood:

Acknowledging innovative eco-friendly skill programs that promote sustainable employment.

4. Heritage Impact Award for Skill Modernization:

Awarding innovations that enhance traditional skills with modern relevance to meet market demands.

5. Inclusion Champion Award for Differently-abled Skill Development:

Rewarding organizations excelling in creating accessible skill programs and employment opportunities for differently-abled individuals.

Last date to apply: 15th November 2024
