

“RIGHT DECISION AND THE PERSEVERENCE ARE KEYS TO SUCCESS – MS. BELMATI HAD THESE BOTH”

Ms. Belmati Patrao is from small village in Bastar, Chhattisgarh. She is 24 years old and has lost both the parents at the age of 11.

Ever since the death of her parents, she along with her a younger brother and a sister, lived and grew up with her grandparents. As the grandparents are growing old, taking care of all of them has become a big challenge. Belmati Patrao, seeing her grandparent struggling, decides to go to some work and support her grandparents financially.

Having studied only up to 8th class, it was not easy for her to get into a job instantly and start earning. She didn't possess any skills that would fetch her a job. Despite of lack of employability skills, she approached many employers for a job, and nobody offered her anything, since she was a beginner with no adequate skill. She was desperate and didn't know what to do. The future seemed very gloomy and hazy.

When she was in such a helpless situation Ms. Belmati came to know about FVTRS skill training program at Farisgaon and enrolled herself for Mobile Repair training. Farisgaon the training location is 5-6 km away from her native place and don't have proper commuting facility. Ms. Belmati, least bothered about the distance and other hurdles, somehow managed to attend training program regularly and learnt to repair mobiles. She became so skill full and developed such a confidence that she would work on any mobile.

After the successful completion of training she started her own mobile repair shop and earning Rs. 12,000/ per month. She never imagined that she would become an independent entrepreneur. With the earnings she is able to support her grandparents in running the family. Ms. Belmati is so happy and hopeful of expanding her business gradually and support the education of her younger siblings.
